

Call for future hosts of efsli trainers' seminar: 2014 & 2016

Every two years efsli organises a Trainers' Seminar together with an interpreter training programme in Europe.

Participants of efsli trainers' seminar in the past have expressed the wish to hold the efsli trainers' seminar in conjunction with the efsli AGM & Conference. This gives participants the opportunity to attend both events, and save on travelling time and costs. However, in case the hosting country can not or does not want to organise the trainers' seminar, this latter can also be hosted in another country in the fall of that year.

The efsli AGM & Conference is organised annually on the second or third weekend of September. In case of impediment, other more suitable dates will be discussed.

The 2012 trainers' seminar will be hosted by the University of Graz together with the University of Linz, Austria. The 2012 seminar will be in conjunction with the efsli AGM & Conference in 2012.

The 2014 efsli AGM & Conference will take place in Belgium (Flanders) and will be hosted by BVGT. The 2016 AGM & Conference will take place in Greece and will be hosted by GASLI.

The efsli Board would hereby like to call for a host for the next efsliT seminar in 2014 and 2016. Please submit your letter of interest to efsli and send it to Marinella Salami, the Head of the efsli Training Department, marinella.salami@efsli.org

Further information can be found in the efsli guide "How to organise an efsli trainers' seminar", which can be downloaded in pdf format here:
